Jesus, we believe the old order of things will pass away, and we ache for the day when death will die, mourning, crying and pain will cease. You'll wipe every tear from our eyes and make all things new. Rev 21 v 4-5. As I await that day, I simply pray, saying "Come, Lord Jesus, come."

God is our refuge and strength... always ready to help in times of trouble. So, we will not fear when earthquakes come and the mountains crumble into the sea.... He causes wars to end throughout the earth. He breaks the bow and snaps the spear; he burns the shields with fire. Be still and know that I am God. I will be honoured by every nation. I will be honoured throughout the world. Psalm 46 v 1-2 & 9-10 NLT

Lord Jesus, I believe you are the Prince of Peace. Faced with fears and the horrors of wars I am confident you are in control and you rule and reign. You are the only answer to the turmoil of all the nations. Amen.

We close this prayer leaflet with further worship and our KYB Bible verse for 2026 taken from Paul's prayer in Ephesians 3 v 20:

Now to Him who is able to do far more abundantly than all we ask or think, according to the power at work in us, to Him to glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

Jer 33 v 3 NIV Call to me and I will answer you and tell you great and unsearchable things you do not know.

Thanks to all for joining in praying and for this promise that as we have prayed He will answer.

Know Your Bible welcomes you to our prayer for the nation leaflet 2026. Whether you pray individually, or in groups, may our prayers join together powerfully to humbly ask our Father God to intervene in our land.

We offer these scriptures and prayer points for guidance, and ask as you seek to set aside time to pray, that we will again see a mighty move of God in our nation as our prayers join together daily.

Prayers, Prompts & Bible Verses

History belongs to the intercessors. May our prayers shape generations and influence the course of history in our time.

Matthew 6 v 9-13

When you pray, say: Our Father, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come. Let your will be done, as in heaven, so on earth. Give us each day our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, for we also forgive everyone who sins against us. And lead us not into temptation, For yours is the kingdom, the power and the glory, forever amen.

Monday

Jesus, will you move in power across our nation. Shake the foundations of our structures if those structures keep you out; stretch out your hand to heal, restore and reveal your glory. Lord Jesus thank you that you recognise the emotions I feel at the instability and uncertainty of these days – I admit sometimes I feel angry, anxious, apathetic and more! May my intercession form an expression of love as I try to pray boldly and compassionately. May our young people be freed from anxiety and our older folk from loneliness. Defend those who feel unheard. May our multicultural society know the inclusiveness of your promise that all nations will one day worship before King Jesus. Amen.

Psalms 34 v 18 NIV The Lord is close to the broken-hearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit.

1 Cor 12 v 26
When one suffers we all suffer.

Forgive me when I have not turned my ears to the cries of those suffering.

Sunday

Thank you Lord for using the times we are in to turn the hearts of many to the Truth of your Word. We thank you for your great heart of love shown us in Jesus, and ask that His life, death and resurrection call us back to restored relationship with our Father God.

Break all barriers and hindrances which would stand in the way of your Truth breaking through to us, and bring us to a place of peace with our God, assurance of your presence and authority to boldly proclaim your goodness in our nation, amongst our neighbourhoods, and families, bringing hope and courage to live in the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

1 Tim 1 v 1 MSG

The first thing I want you to do is pray. Pray every way you know how, for everyone you know. Pray especially for rulers and their governments to rule well so we can be quietly about our business of living simply, in humble contemplation.

Acts 4 v 27-31

After they prayed, the place where they were meeting was shaken.

Tuesday

In the midst of troubled times, I cry out to you, my only hope and my great prince of peace. Help us to prevail, that death and destruction may end. We pray for those who seek to escalate violence, that your Holy Spirit would move them to de-escalate, and they would be inspired to seek peace and a posture of love.

Lord, I pray that in nations where conflicts abound, and in this nation where there is conflict, you would raise up righteous leadership; leaders who would care for all people they serve and who are willing to pursue peace and justice. Meet my brothers and sisters who find themselves in conflict, filling them with your peace, comforting them with your presence, and please give them strength to be Christlike in the storms of life. Amen.

Wednesday

Lord Jesus, please give me boldness to hold onto the truth of who you are. Jesus reveal yourself to those searching for answers today. Let your Name be known and trusted across our communities and help us declare your word of truth at every opportunity. Amen.

Thank God for the ministry of KYB, asking God that its reach and impact may grow through studies, events and the daily walk and witness of all God's women.

Psalms 60 v 3a You have shown your people desperate times.

Joshua 23 v 7 Do not associate with those nations that remain among you; do not invoke the names of their gods or swear by them. You must not serve them or bow down to them. But you are to hold fast to the Lord your God, as you have until now. 2 Chron 7 v 14 GNT If they pray to me and repent and turn away from the evil they have been doing, then I will hear them in heaven, forgive their sins, and make their land prosperous again.

Friday

Lord, help us to be more like the early church. Help us to pray more and to follow the leading of the Holy Spirit day-by-day. I pray that our nation would be transformed as people across all generations come to know you.

Lord Jesus, I live in a busy and anxious world, where many people are trapped behind masks of self-preservation, afraid to admit they're struggling. As I draw strength from your Spirit today, help me demonstrate a freer and better way to live. Help me share about my limitations honestly and about the difference you make in my life. Thank you for being my sustainer and helper at all times.

Let our sphere of influence expand with your instruction, and our faith and confidence in what you can do. Amen.

Thursday

Lord of all, we are sorry for putting the culture of the day before the truth of your word. Please forgive us and grant us leaders who will govern with integrity and exalt the name of Jesus in our nation. Have mercy on us and bring your Holy Spirit conviction on our nation to draw us back to your heart of love. Amen.

Pray for our Royal family, that our king, parliament, government, schools, and law courts will acknowledge the One True God. Help us prioritise the poor and be kind to the needy. May our media report honestly.

Pray for our NHS and all emergency workers – police, firefighters, ambulance services, coastguards and thank God for their bravery and compassion. May they bring hope and healing in Jesus name. Pray for our farmers and the effects of difficult weather patterns on them and the food chain.

But the wisdom that comes from heaven is first of all pure; then peace loving, considerate, full of mercy and good fruit, impartial and sincere. Peacemakers who sow in peace reap a harvest of righteousness.
